Lawn Pets for St. Joseph's Hospital Nets $500 to Endow Free Bed—Fine Work of Women's Auxiliary.

The proceeds of the recent lawn Pets, $500, have been presented to St. Joseph's hospital. The presentation was made by Mrs. Charles E. Little and Miss Katherine Hafferty in the name of the Ladies' auxiliary.

The money is to be used for the endowment of a free bed, which is in the interests of a noble cause. The hearty co-operation of the various committees with Mrs. Hafferty, who is chairman of the endowment committee, the good will and untiring efforts of the ladies have been crowned with success. The sum raised combined with the amount collected by Mrs. Little during the past year for the same purpose is ample to endow a bed for the next two years.

COMING TO WILLIMANTIC.

Next Annual Encampment of the Connecticut Spanish War Soldiers.

The annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans concluded its sessions in Fort Guard armory, New Haven, Saturday. Department Commander William Lounsbury of Bridgeport called the encampment to order at 9:30 o'clock. Following the report of committee, these officers were elected: Department commander, George F. Gammons of New Haven; senior vice commander, Frank C. Johnson of Hartford; junior vice commander, James Cochran of Willimantic; inspector, Perry A. Sawtelle of Meriden; judge advocate, Russell Porter Clark of Stamford; surgeon, Thomas F. Rockwell of Rockville; chaplain, Rev. Henry H. Kelley of Hartford; marshal, Joseph Monaghan of Waterbury; council of Meriden, Nathaniel G. Valenline of Hartford; Frank Mason of New Haven; E. F. Leonard of Bridgeport; S. M. Leonard of New Britain and James H. Dyke of Derby; delegates at large to the national encampment at Tacoma, Wash., Timothy Quinn of Willimantic, Russell Porter of Stamford, Timothy McCarthy of Branford and Edward E. Mosley of Hartford.

Department Commander Gammons announced the appointment of Edward L. Best and Charles S. Morris of New Haven for adjutant and quartermaster, respectively.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. McNamara of Cambridge, president general of the Ladies' auxiliary, was present at a portion of Saturday's session and delivered a fine talk, impressing upon the comrades present the necessity for the Ladies' auxiliary.

There was a contest over the place of holding the next department encampment and the Willimantic contingent won out over Stamford by a margin having a ratio of three to one. Past year's encampment was held at Stamford, C. Tyler camp, No. 1, and much to the surprise of the organization, the Willimantic contingent was elected to hold the next encampment at Willimantic.

Commander McNamara of Tyler camp was also instrumental in electing a new committee. The committee was elected by a vote of 10 to 2. The committee is composed of: George F. Gammons of New Haven; senior vice commander, Frank C. Johnson of Hartford; junior vice commander, James Cochran of Willimantic; inspector, Perry A. Sawtelle of Meriden; judge

PUTNAM

Barnicle and Boyle Give Fans Great Game—Only Run Scored With No One Out—That Credited Home Team in Tenth Inning.

Putnam won the finest game of ball ever played on the Providence grounds. The game was played at the Putnam grounds on Saturday afternoon in a ten inning struggle that will remain memorable when other seasons have come and gone. The only run of the game was scored by Captain Labelle with no one out and it was a shame that it came in such a way as to allow the home team to win the game. The game was a close one, with the home team leading 1-0 in the ninth inning, but the visitors scored in the tenth inning to win the game.

The repair department of the Aspinok Company held a field day and clam bake in Salpina's grove on Saturday. A ball game between the married and single men proved an interesting event, the single men winning, 6 to 5. Batteries: S. M. Watt and Clarence Jafford; D. E. Jones, McGarbur and David Bothwell. F. H. Gilbert was umpire and proved a capable man calling some close decisions in a suitable manner. Races were as follows: Putnam's race, 50 yards, E. H. Chapman; 100 yard dash, Clarence Jafford; standing jump, Clarence Jafford, 10 feet 8 inches; standing jump, Harry Wakenfield, 28 feet 3 inches; hop, step and jump, Clarence Jafford, 33 feet 4 inches; walking contest, Peter Monty. The clowder was served at 3 o'clock and clam bake at 5:30 o'clock under the direction of L. F. Lewis, which was O. K. in every respect. The committee in charge was: H. Chapman, Louis Tetreault and Clarence Jafford. Tugs of war were pulled between different teams and single men, Henry Lashbrook outpulling any man on the grounds, Albert Potts outpulling every man with strap over the back of the head.
